

SESSION INFORMATIONA. TARGET DATA:

Task/Target No.	:	92-69-O
Session No.	:	03

B. PERSONNEL DATA:

Source No.	:	049
Monitor's No.	:	N/A
Beacon/Sender No.	:	N/A

C. SESSION DATA:

Date Task Received	:	Continuous
Session Date	:	24 JUN 92
Start Time	:	1342
Stop Time	:	1518
Method Used	:	CRV/ERV
Aids/Distractions (PIs)	:	Tired from workout; billets.
Pre-session Hunches (AVs)	:	None
Date Summary Returned	:	25 JUN 92

D. EVALUATION DATA:

Viewer's Estimate	:	No se'.
Evaluator's Estimate	:

E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The illegal cargo is densely packed within oblong shaped packages. The uniformity of the packages has been caused by pressing the substance into a form or mold. These packages are 20-24" long x 8-10" wide x 4" thick. Each package is wrapped with a bluish colored heavy wrapping. Several of these packages are then bundled together with an equally heavy wrapping. These bundles are then densely packed within portions of the hidden sub-deck compartment. There is a certain "overwhelming" aspect to this situation.

Elsewhere, there are L-shaped, tube-shaped objects associated with the cargo. There is a bulge in the venting system which feels important. Individuals can be seen winding down through three levels or layers.

The hidden compartment containing the illegal cargo is detailed in diagrams "i" and "ii". The access to this sub-surface compartment is located on a lower deck which sits at the base of the backside of the super structure. This access lies under an area comprised of a grate or wooden planking. There is a cluster of blue barrels or bales along one edge of this grate area. Along the other edge is a large, "hook-shaped" metal object used for clamping or hooking onto something (see diagram). There is a lot of work-related debris scattered across the top of this grate area. This particular area has been purposely left greasy/dirty and cluttered to further camouflage the access opening to the sub-deck compartment. The access opening has been securely bolted/screwed down with a water tight seal. The compartment beneath has a false bottom/floor and is made to look like a storage bin/hold/bay. Beneath this false floor is an extensive sub-level(s) which has been densely packed with the aforementioned packages.

(2)

Perceptions of Call-Signs included: reference to a VooDoo hierarchy/spiritual leader position (the word for an upper level position but below that of the head priest); also references to angels and saints; and the phonetics COCO--- (not "nut"), DAR--- (not "ling"), RACHAEL and WART or WORT.